Dedication

We pay tribute to Dr. A. E. Evans ... who for the past three years has used his knowledge and wisdom for the benefit of Lambuth students. He has made for himself a place in the hearts of all of us. In lieu of a shining gold medal given for excellent service, we offer this publication as a sincere attempt to show our love and esteem for this man whom we know best as "Pop".

Foreword

Here's our little contribution to add to your collection of party favors, programs, corsage pins, letters, movie stubs, and class notes (if there be any). Of course, we're trying to be flip about it now but back in January when the cold night winds rattled every window on Third, we burned the midnight oil in an earnest endeavor to write copy, copy and more copy. Daylight found us taking pictures—insulting sundry people as we went, with our severe requirements for models and our bad temperaments.

If any portion of this book resembles anything else you have seen in print, it may be last year's LANTERN or the yearbook of any and all schools from which we could beg, steal, or borrow, but we assure you that any such resemblance is purely intentional. No one is more aware than we that the 1941 LANTERN is different in form from those which have gone before; that it may be subject to a great deal of criticism. We hope that this will not be true, but that the changes will meet with the approval of the students for whom the yearbook is published.

We want to express our sincere appreciation to all who have helped us make our yearbook what it is—to our advertisers, and to the Welch Publishing Company, as well as to many who worked in an unofficial capacity. To lead you through our little labyrinth we offer the following notes as a sort of guide sheet.

Book One—Portraits of our administrators. Book Two—Graduating Seniors, struggling Juniors, cocksure Sophies, and bewildered (or more properly, bewildering) Frosh. Book Three—Student Life. Book Four—Athletics in the spotlight, with skilled and unskilled labor. Book Five—presenting a new section, the Features.

We hope you like it.

THE STAFF

Administration

R. E. Womack, B.A., M.A., LL. D.

Lambuth was founded in 1924, and from that time forward, Dr. Richard E. Womack has served as president of the institution. He is highly educated, cultured, and a Christian man, and is regarded with respect and honor by all those with whom he is associated.

Lambuth students have learned to look on him as a friend and leader, and as one in whose heart lives our motto: "Whatsoever things are true."

The Deans

M. E. Eagle, B.A. and M.A., besides being dean of the college, teaches history with the zeal of a historian, and plays golf with the enthusiasm, if not the finesse, of Sammy Sneed. Lambuth is indeed enriched by the loyalty of this good man.

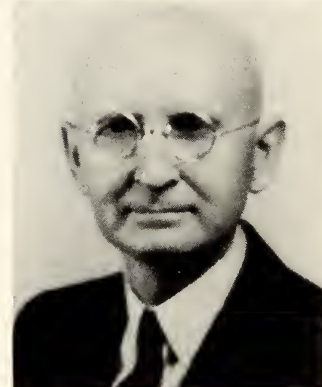

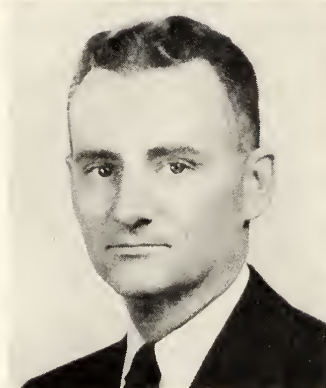

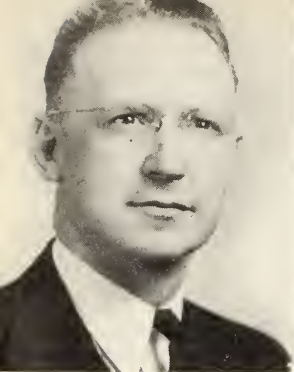

Esther Lee, B.A. and M.A., is a newcomer to the Lambuth campus. She is dean of women and rules her girls with a firm hand. She is also Professor of Freshman English. Her hobby is embroidering, and she can give you the lowdown on the latest and best books.

Arthur D. Oxley, B.S. and M.A., dean of men, and professor of biology is a favorite on the college campus. He has a subtle sense of humor, and always answers a question with a question. Anyone who knows Mendel as he does is a wonder to us!

The Faculty

The Lambuth administration has ably led the college through another worthwhile session . . . the 17th of its existence. They added five new and valuable members to their list of faithfuls. Each and every member has had a part in the making of a college, and we don't mean a building. We mean a student body, a student body made up of individuals.

Lambuth has a capable administrative organization, but the students know that their capacities lie not only in administrat-ing but also in acting, for once during the year they discarded their spectacles and their dignified apparel and donned over-alls and hair ribbons like the children of the little red school house. After that night, we felt we knew them better.

So here's to an honored group. We pay tribute to them and their unselfish vocation.

Jokes

Imogene: "Father's sermon tonight is called 'Love one another.' Shall we go to hear it?"

Lloyd: "No. Let's stay home and practice what he preaches."

* * * * *

Mrs. Geeting: "Oh, Doctor, what shall I do? My husband has the housemaid's kneel!"

Doctor: "Madame, I'm just a doctor, not Dorothy Dix!"

* * * * *

Nance: "Charlie, I hear you proposed to Mary Winifred in a terrific thunderstorm."

Humphreys: "Yeah. Those things always did scare me out of my wits."

* * * * *

Mr. Wallick was touring Europe recently. He sent his daughters, Thelma and Hope, the following postcard:

"Dear Girls,

On the other side you will see a picture of the rock from which the Spartans threw their defective children. Wish you were here . . .
Your Dad."

* * * * *

Charles Abrams, talking to a band director who was interviewing him: "Yes, sir, I know I'm qualified to lead the jazz section of an orchestra, because I've had two nervous breakdowns, a bad case of coffee nerves, and I live in Epworth Hall."

* * * * *

Helen Richardson: "Are you looking for someone in particular?"

Spicer: "Well, I'm satisfied if you are."

* * * * *

B. B. Austin: "Look, Mr. Snipes! There's a piece of tin in my hash."

Mr. Snipes: "Certainly, mechanization of the modern age. The machine is everywhere replacing the horse."

Classes

Senior Class

There are twenty-one graduating members of the class of 1941. All but four of these are students who have done their entire four years' work in Lambuth. It is with the kindest thoughts of the Alma Mater that these seniors leave Lambuth's halls of learning.

The autumnal sign, Libra, influences this class, the members of which have reached the harvest time of their college days. They are ardent, adventurous, alert, and versatile. It is written in the stars that they will be successful, though working against difficult odds.

The class this year was ably led by Lloyd Ramer as President, Billy Greathouse as Vice-President, and Imogene Underwood as Secretary-Treasurer.

May every Senior, living by the Balance, the protecting sign which hovers about this class, find life a "good measure—pressed down—shaken together, running over."

Junior Class

Leo, the Lion, keeps a watchful eye over this crop during its growing season. By the third year these students have learned to be benevolent human guide books to all newcomers, staunch and sturdy dependables to the faculty, and natural diplomats in organization meetings.

People living under this constellation are ambitious, magnetic, bold, and proud. This year they are at the crossroads of life and the ambition for a sheep-skin will soon be fulfilled.

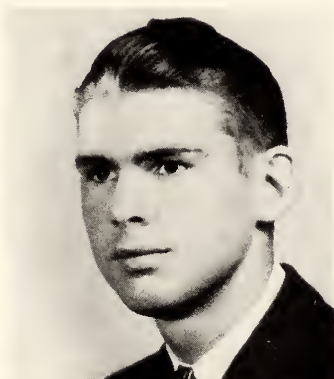

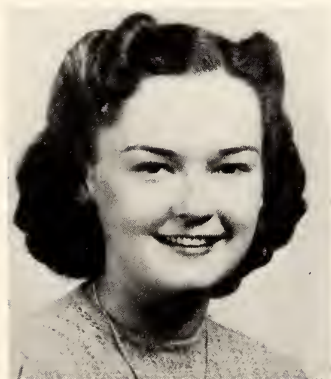

This class boasts some excellent sportsmen and sportswomen, some musicians of note, and leaders in various campus organizations. The officers of this class are as follows: President, Jack Phelps; Vice-President, Eugene Johnston; and Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Evelyn Elder.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class has reached the awakening period, and Pisces, symbolizing Spring, directs the budding interests of our second year students. This constellation is filled with many double-stars of unusual brightness and like-wise this class abounds in noteworthy people. Its own class officers are: W. A. Nance, President; Enos Thurmond, Vice-President; and Carolyn Tanner, Secretary-Treasurer.

One of the double-stars is "Dub", who while editing the VISION, finds time to play a mean game of basketball. President of the Christian Movement Council is Malcolm McMillan, who also served ably as Assistant Editor of the yearbook. On the LANTERN staff, too, was Patty Jean Matthews, who was elected football maid for the 1940 season. So we can readily see the brilliancy of this galaxy.

With memories of the not-too-distant pangs of humiliation and suffering still fiendishly revolving in their craniums, the Sophomores initiated the beginners into the delights of "paddle parties" and the horrors of being a "Froshie."

Freshman Class

Sixty-one Freshmen, everyone as strong in spirit and loyalty as the young sun gods, settled on the Lambuth Campus in September. From orientation, this class showed unusual activity despite the trials which fell as thick and fast as snow flakes in the winter wind. They sang the Alma Mater; they learned the traditions; they adopted a "step-and-fetch-it" philosophy—fetching in the wake of the upperclassmen (when they couldn't help it).

Class election took place early in the school year and a wise selection was made. The presidential chair was filled by Robert McGowan. Robert McMillan was chosen for Vice-President and Martha Frances Robbins for the position of Secretary-Treasurer.

The Freshmen are still in the dormant stage and the constellation which governs this group is Capricornus, the governor of the winter months. The sign representing this zodiacal period is the goat, and rightly so. Just ask any Freshman if you don't believe it!

Student Life

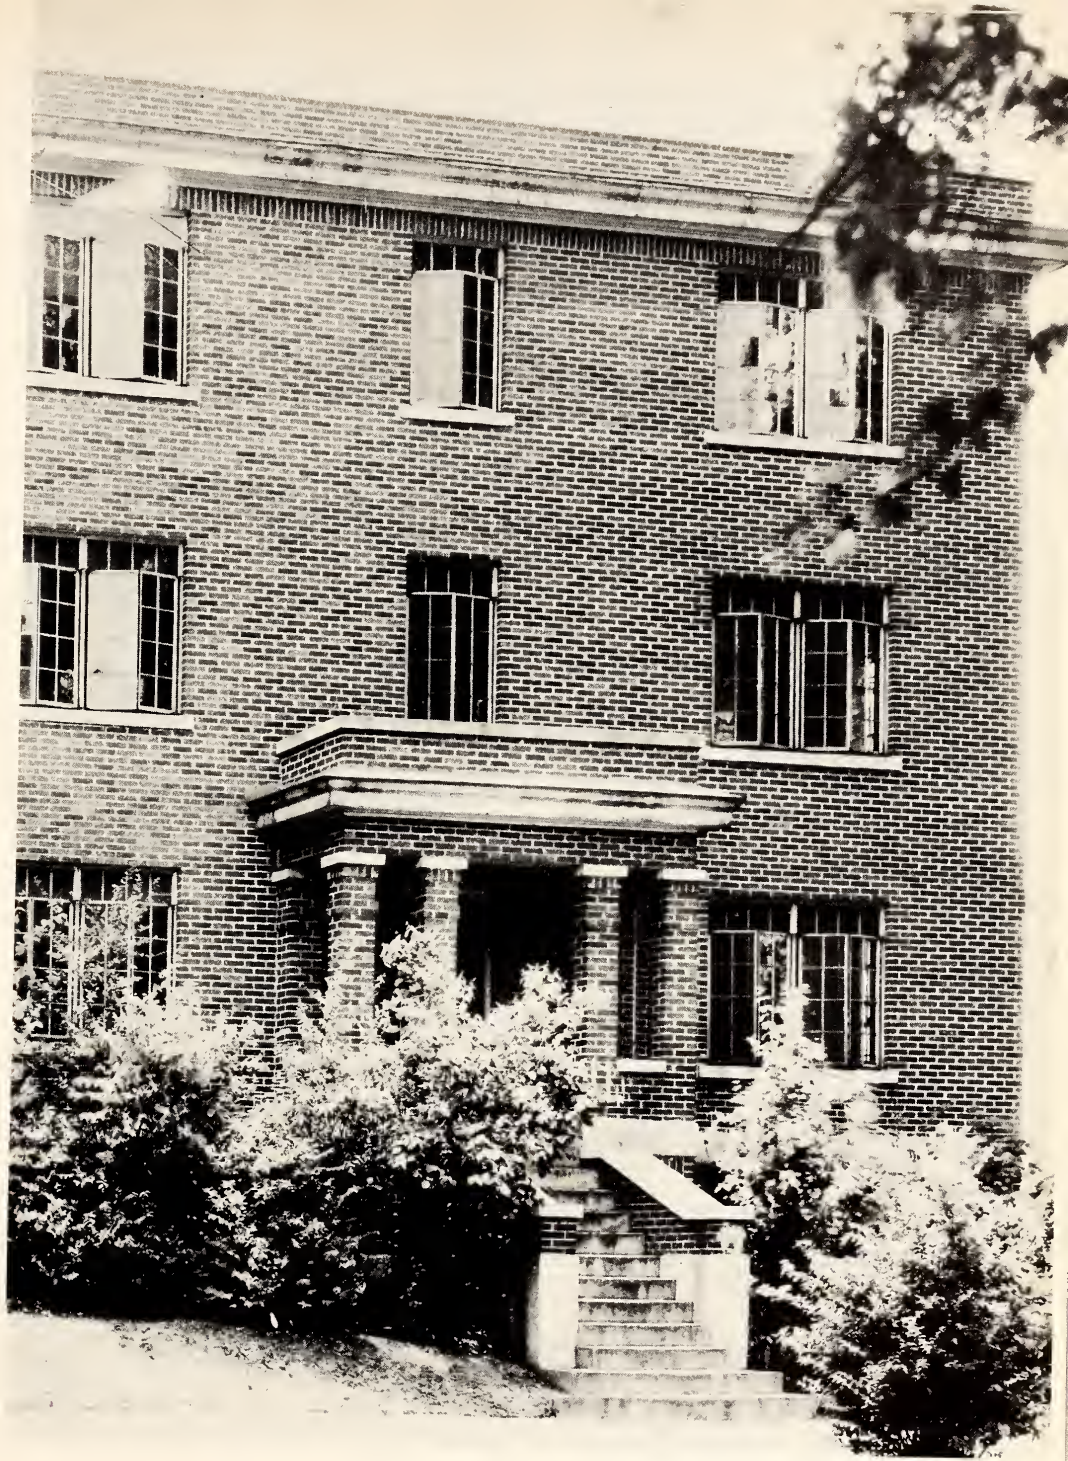

*Hail to Lambuth, our Lambuth beloved
School of ideals, of sunlight and song,*

Though afar from thy campus removed Still our hearts shall for thee ever long,

*Sweet thy memories, thy fond recollections
'Tis the dear school that gave us our worth,*

*How you hold, College dear, our affections,
Alma Mater, the fairest on earth.*

Lambuth at Play

Week-ends

What would school be without holidays? We love our Alma Mater, but we pack and plan days ahead for vacations, whether they are for two or fourteen days.

In the girls' dormitory, boxes from home mean "get-togethers" and food. There's always a time for merry-making and fun.

The Girls' Dormitory

In Epworth Hall

Off Duty

From the beginning of school "our room" naturally becomes the center of attraction. We hope our rooms don't always express our personalities, but sometimes, after a "house cleaning," we proudly display them to our neighbors. Here we may write to "the one," read our favorite books, study, or take a snooze in "relative" privacy.

Election Day

As a result of Wendell Willkie's defeat in the presidential race, several students lost a wager which ended in serious physical discomfort. They received from the Democrats on the campus, a "ducking" in the icy waters of the fish pond.

The ceremony was solemnly performed with a mock minister, in frocktail coat, standing by. Musical note: the band played "Three Little Fishes."

Politics and the Fourth Estate

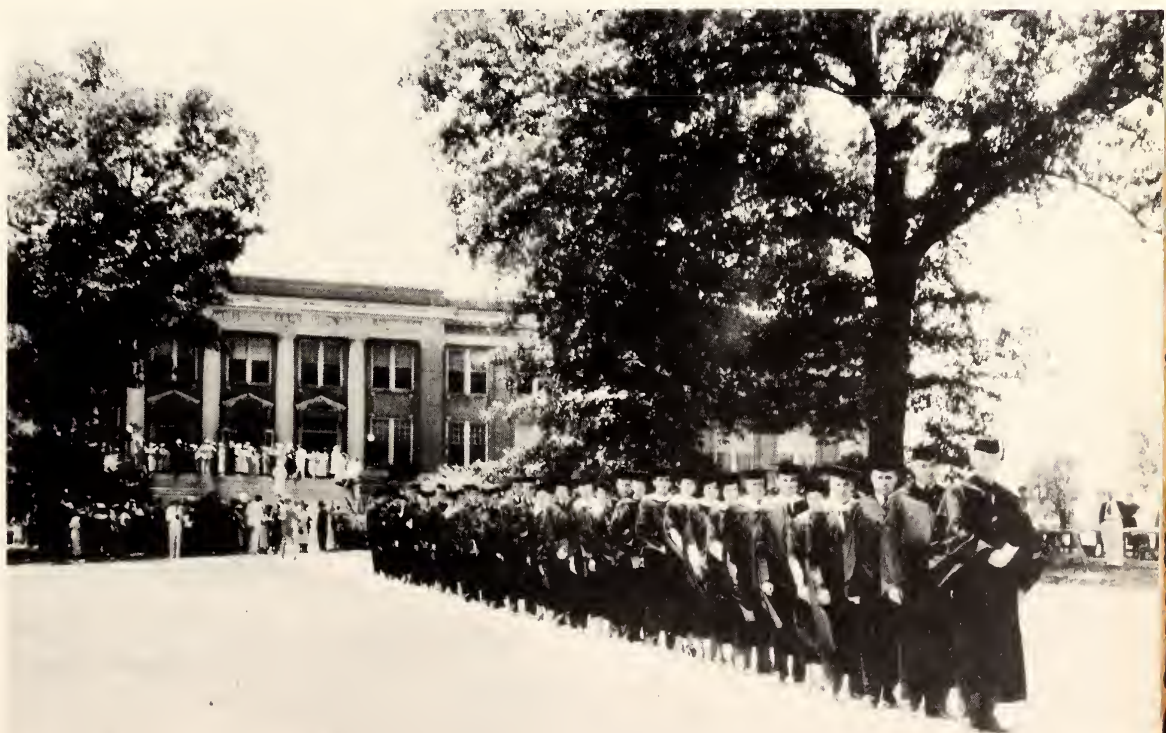

Publications

There are on the campus two student body publications—the VISION, which is the school paper, and the LANTERN, which is the annual. Here the editor of the paper proudly displays one of the first printed editions to the yearbook editor.

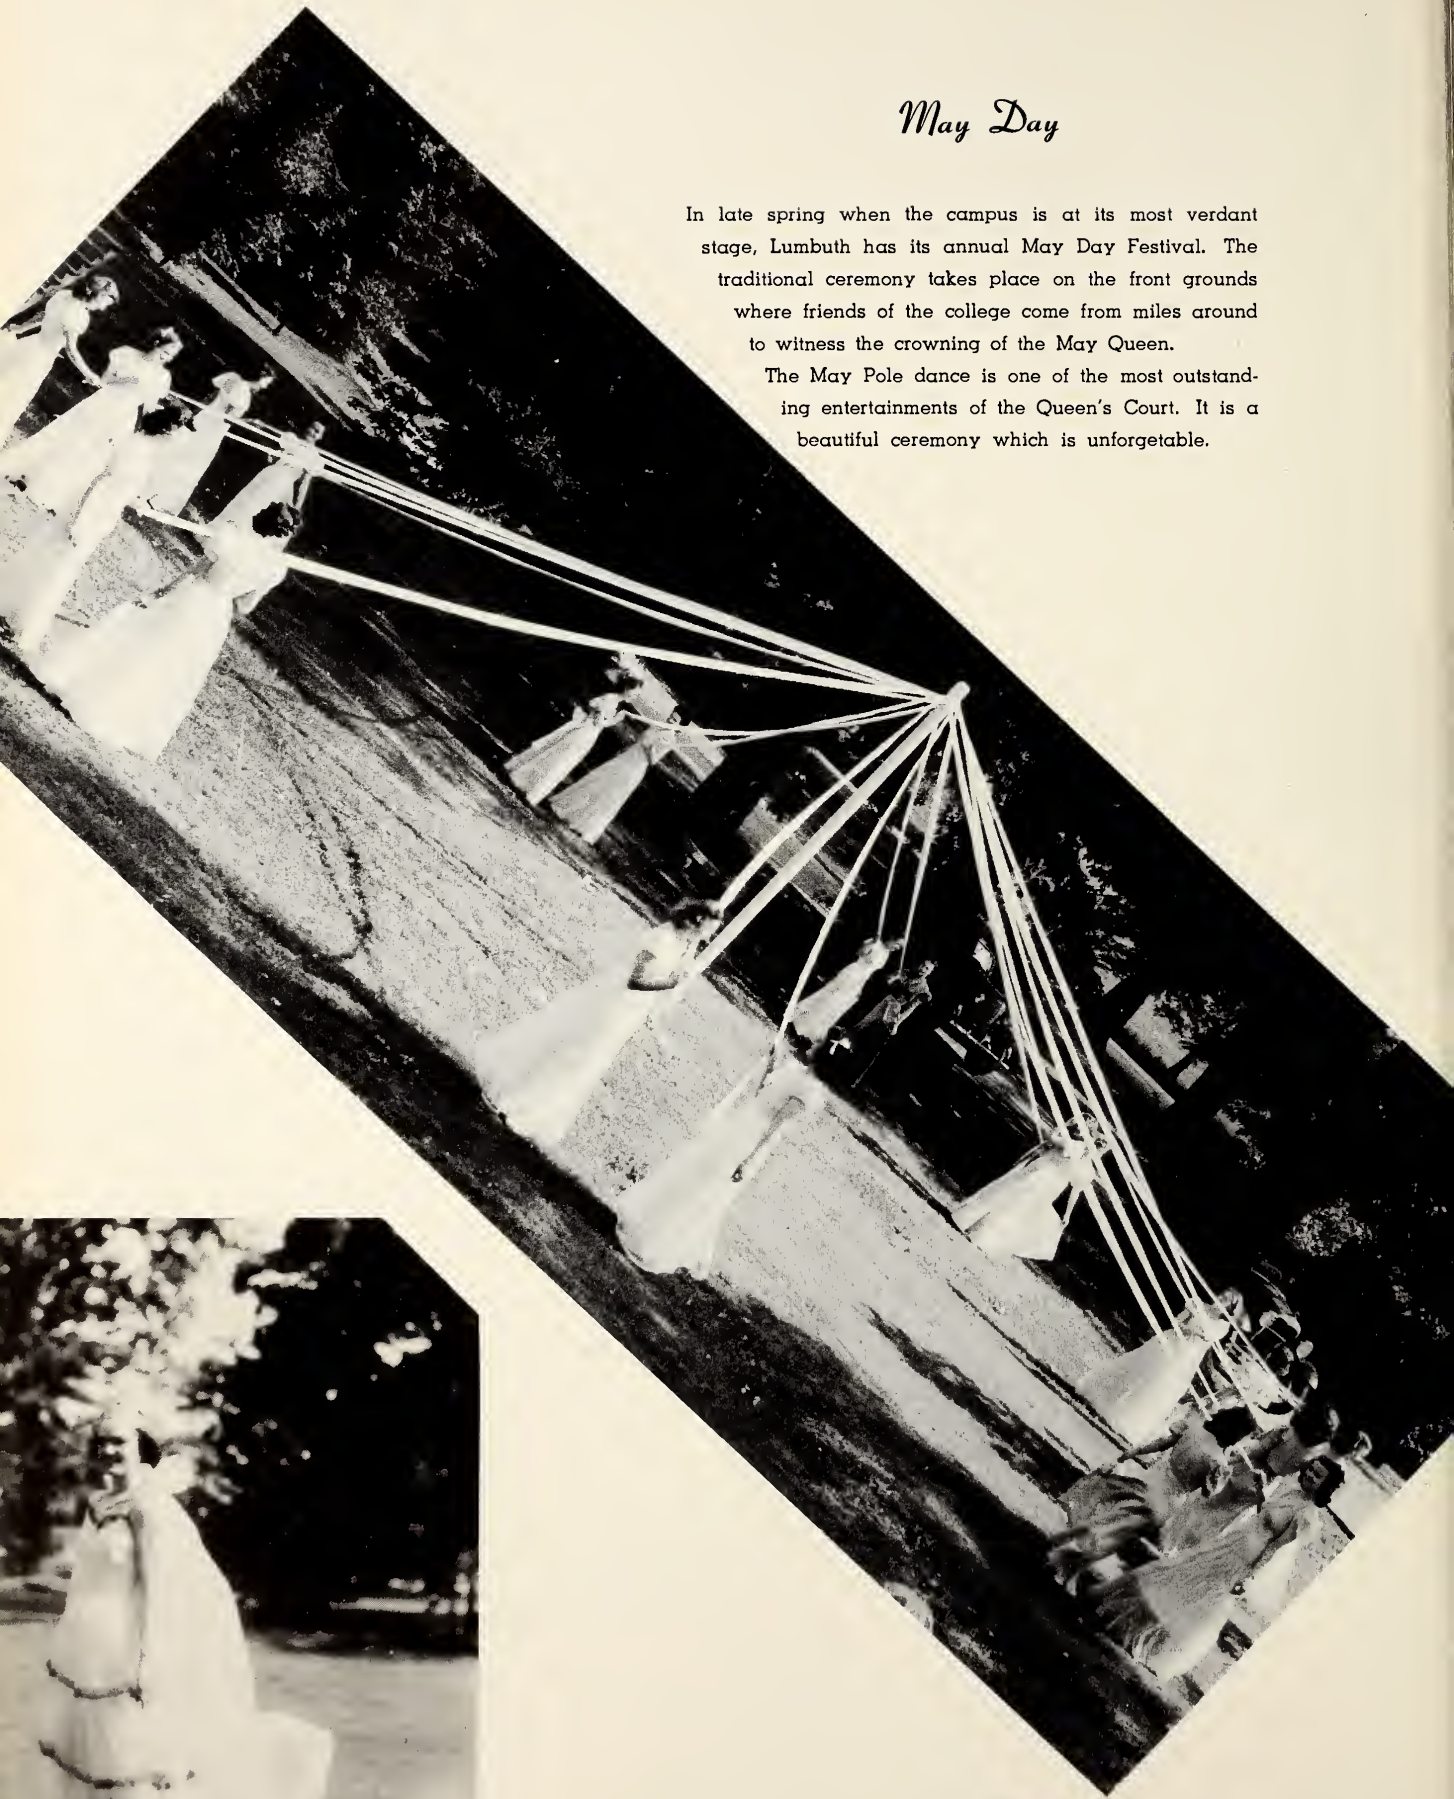

Parlor Dates and Graduation, All a Part of College

May Day

In late spring when the campus is at its most verdant stage, Lumbuth has its annual May Day Festival. The traditional ceremony takes place on the front grounds where friends of the college come from miles around to witness the crowning of the May Queen.

The May Pole dance is one of the most outstanding entertainments of the Queen's Court. It is a beautiful ceremony which is unforgettable.

OFF FOR A TOUCHDOWN!

Captain Johnston proudly exhibits the traveling trophy, won by Lambuth this year in the "Little Cotton Bowl" game.

Sports

Sports at Lambuth are varied enough to suit the desires of every student. They range from less strenuous things like pingpong and archery, to such things as basket ball, tennis, and six-man football.

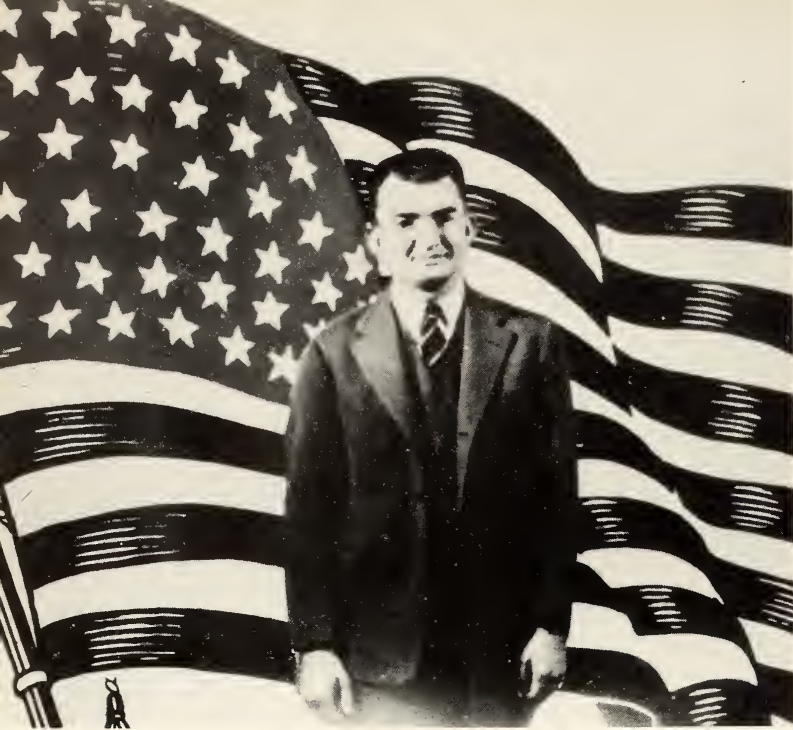

Each fall a queen and two maids are elected by the football team to reign over the annual Home Coming Festivities. Lucky are the girls who receive this distinct honor.

Organizations

Charles Cosner, Student Body President

Lambuth may look this year upon the achievements of its Student Government with a glow of pride, for President Charles Cosner has led us through a most successful year. Almost perfect response on Homecoming Day was perhaps the greatest single achievement of the Cosner-Parker Administration. The establishment of the Little Cotton Bowl game with its traveling trophy as an annual affair was another keystone. School spirit has had its ups and downs, but on the whole has stayed at a high point.

Student Body

Vetrano, Andrews, Sanders, Clemons, Langdon

Vice-President Parker presided ably over a co-operative student council. The amendment to the Freshman bill was the most outstanding and constructive piece of legislation.

Irvin Sanders presided over the Judicial Committee. This body interprets laws, holds elections, and hears cases regarding breach of student regulations.

The Lantern

The Editor-in-Chief, Margaret C. Bell, and the Business Manager, Harry Miller, have been greatly assisted by their staffs this year in the preparation of your LANTERN. It's a lot of fun, this working on an annual staff, but a great amount of work. Just ask anyone who visited the LANTERN room during the year. We mounted pictures, cut copy, and argued continually about who should have the last word. There were also some slight misunderstandings in regard to certain staff members being pictured too often on "these here pages," but the editor's resistance wanes about one A.M.

If the 1941 annual brings pleasant memories in after years to Lambuth's present day students it will have accomplished its purpose.

The Vision

Another dream came true. The proverbial printed VISION is again with us. Leading the printed parade was W. A. Nance, man of many talents. The thanks of the student body go out to "Dub" and others who have made this excellent paper possible.

The VISION is published bi-monthly and covers the Lambuth "beat." It reaches the students on alternate Mondays, and for at least five minutes the heads of the students are buried in headlines.

It has been the policy of this staff to make the VISION worthy of its excellent name. To live and be a force for good it must fulfill its motto: "The Voice of the Students." This year more than ever before it has been an organ of student opinion, and a means of student entertainment and enlightenment.

The Literary Forum is an organization composed of English majors and minors. Their purpose is to acquire a deeper appreciation and more thorough knowledge of the best in literature. This year the club has made a historical study of the different periods in American literature. The Sponsor of this club is the English Professor, Miss Sarah V. Clement. The club meets one night a month to hear book reviews and papers, and to have a good time in general. Every member feels that this is a worthwhile college activity, and takes advantage of it.

Les Jeunes Francais is a club made up of French students who are upper-classmen and who have had at least two years of this foreign language. They meet one Tuesday night a month, conversation is carried on in French, and a program is presented. Some time during the year every member takes part on the programs.

Miss Katharine Clement, the French

Professor, is the sponsor of the club. Under her guidance the club has grown and become an important one on the campus. This year the club changed its name from Les Treize Jeunes Francais to Les Jeunes Francais, since the number is no longer limited. Miss Clement was assisted in leading this year by the capable officers of the organization.

The Phi Alpha Mu is composed of girls who take cooking, sewing, or some other phase of Home Economics. It is a national organization, Lambuth's chapter having been formed in 1929. The club meets twice a month, once for a short day-time business meeting and once for a social meeting where a paper is read or a speaker is heard, games are played and refreshments are served.

The main event with which the Phi Alpha Mu concerns itself is the annual style show. Many friends of the college come to see the smart wearing apparel which is made and modeled by members of the clothing class. And indeed these girls do "sew a fine seam."

This year the club has had a new sponsor . . . Maurine Ensor . . . of whom everyone seems to be fond. She has fitted in well at Lambuth and has done much to promote interest in professional home making.

The Dramatic Club is one of the most outstanding organizations on our campus.

One of the interesting features about the club this year was the presentation of two plays under student direction. The plays were "Little Darling," and "Frederick," produced by O. B. Emerson and Virginia Bishop, respectively.

The biggest event of the year in the line of dramatics was the three act play, which was presented during the spring quarter, and was a distinct success.

This club seeks to promote a wider knowledge and a more lasting interest in dramatic art.

The Student Volunteers is an international Christian student organization made up of students of all creeds, denominations, and races. On the Lambuth campus it is under the general direction of and cooperates with the Christian Movement Council. Their aim is to make Christianity practical.

Meetings are held once a month in the home of the sponsor, Mrs. J. R. Walker. Each year they bring some distinguished visitor to the campus, and this year they were fortunate in being able to present Dr. Cecelia Shepherd, of the Fellowship of Reconciliation. Dr. Shepherd spent two days at Lambuth and made several addresses during her visit.

The president, W. A. Nance, reports that this year has been a successful one for the club. The other officers are Helen Richardson, Secretary-Treasurer, and Jack Phelps, Vice-President.

Lambuth has a Glee Club! . . . And belonging to the Glee Club means special privileges, like coming in after light bell. There are twenty-eight songsters in the group this year, fifteen town students, and thirteen dormitory students. Their activities are varied. They sing for services in churches all over the Memphis Conference, spreading music and good will for the Alma Mater. They also make an appearance each year at graduation and they, in their white vestments, add beauty of appearance as well as tone to the ceremonies.

Miss Myrta Peck is the director of the choir and our appreciation goes out to her for making it what it is. As long as Miss Peck is on the job, we shall have music!

The Band

"Fight, fight, you 'Eagles" . . . plays the band. And whether it's during a pep meeting, a chapel program, or actually at the scene of the game, there's something about the blare of the horns and the roll of the drum that stirs the heart of every true Lambuthite and makes us cheer our heads off.

There are sixteen members of the band, and Mr. Wallick, the band director, is well pleased with the success he has had with his group this year. They practice twice a week and can be heard throughout the building . . . they usually have an audience, too, which means we enjoy them. When Mr. Wallick isn't present, you ought to see his daughter wave the baton! She's elegant!

This group is one of the oldest organizations on the Lambuth campus. Its membership consists of future ministers, missionaries, and others planning to devote full time to religious work. There were eighteen members on its roll this year, and each one is prominent on the college campus.

The purpose of the Deputation Committee is to bring together those who have chosen their life work in the field of religion, giving them an opportunity to prepare programs and learn to meet the difficulties which will beset them a few years hence, when their vocations actually begin.

Under the direction of the Professor of Religion, J. R. Walker, the Deputation Committee has completed a successful year.

The Christian Movement Council is an organization which directs and coordinates all religious activities on the campus. Under its jurisdiction come the Fellowship organization, the Deputation Committee, the Student Volunteers, and the Campus Church Relation Committee. There are nine members of the Council elected from various groups on the campus.

This year, the Council brought several distinguished visitors to Lambuth. Early in the year, Wyatt Jones, an outstanding young religious leader and thinker from Birmingham Southern, spent two days on our campus. Later, Kirby Page, world-famous lecturer and author spoke to the students and visitors. In February, Rev. Ted Hightower of Memphis, Trinity Church, conducted the young people's annual revival in Jackson.

This year we think the Christian Movement Council has done a commendable piece of work and has left a solid foundation for the coming years.

The oldest fraternity on the campus is Sigma Alpha, founded in 1927. Their colors are blue and gold and their flower, the Rambler Rose.

Journalism seems to be the field of this bunch of swell fellows. Besides furnishing the sports editor of the LANTERN, S. A. claims three of the most important VISION staff members and a member of the college publicity department. It is not correct, however, to think that their talents stop here, for they contributed this year several outstanding sport stars in the fields of football, basketball and golf.

The S. A.'s have a keen interest in the affairs of their Alma Mater and are truly all 'round students. There's no need for saying more.

KappaPhiEpsilon, established in 1930, has had a long and successful record in Lambuth. Their colors are black and gold and their flower is the snapdragon.

If there's anything on the campus that these fellows aren't in, we have yet to discover it. Whether it's carrying the pigskin, waxing dramatic, working with publications or in religious groups, they just have to have a finger in the pie. This organization is just full of stars. They not only DO things, but they APPEAR well: one member was elected most handsome boy.

Lambuth is a better place for having Kappa Phi's.

The Theta Psi fraternity was founded at Lambuth College in April, 1930. Through the years the organization has been an outstanding one. Theta Psi has this year lived up to its reputation of furnishing leaders on the campus. The student body president wears the white carnation of this fraternal order. This same person won TWO titles in the popularity poll.

Versatility is one of the characteristics of this group. They shine in football and basketball, where they furnished both captains this year. Other members are on the student publication staffs. And where there's a pep meeting, there's a cheer leader. This year, he, too is a Theta Psi. A wider variety of interests cannot be found anywhere on the campus. The fact of their leadership attests the quality of their membership.

The Beta Sigma Alpha sorority was founded in 1929, by eight young ladies who left a rich heritage for all the girls who have followed in their steps. Their pin is the shape of an unbalanced diamond, their colors are black and white, and their flower, the white rose.

Intellect is one of the many things the B. S. A.'s are noted for. When the grade curve is plotted each quarter, this organization is always found near the top. They have in their midst outstanding leaders in the Literary Forum, the French Club, the Student Volunteers, the Dramatic Club, and on the Student Council. Out of the group also came one of the 1940 football maids.

A new sponsor was selected this year in the person of Miss Maurine Ensor, and the club has enjoyed a successful year.

In 1926, the Omega Upsilon Lambda sorority was founded at Lambuth College. The group chose a diamond shaped pin. Their colors are black and gold, and their flower, the talisman rose.

Omega is the largest of campus social organizations and is outstanding for the many fields of activity in which its members take part. Several Omegas held prominent positions this year on the LANTERN and VISION staffs. Two popularity poll winners wear the Omega pin, as do quite a few of the fraternity royalty.

This organization was brought into the lime-light during Lambuth's Homecoming by winning the award for having the largest percentage of alumnae back for the celebration. Loyalty to the Alma Mater is an outstanding characteristic of every Omega.

Founded in 1924, the Tau Deltas have the honor of being one of the oldest organizations on the campus. Their pin is triangular in shape, their flower the red rose.

Where there's music on the campus, there's sure to be a Tau Delta. This group of popular young ladies has done much to make the student body music conscious. In band concerts or "jam sessions" you will nearly always find that the center of attraction is a beaming young lady wearing the greek letters "TD". Of course the girls are outstanding in other ways, too. For example, in dramatics they furnish two of the top names and do a great deal in making the plays a success. Two T.D.'s are fraternity royalty.

In all phases of college life the Tau Deltas are very active. They have won the admiration of the entire student body.

Eyeing the Eagles

The Lambuth six-maners, living up to their reputation as National Inter-collegiate six-man champs, came through the football campaign with a record of three victories and one defeat. They were declared six-man champs of the Mississippi Valley Conference and gained recognition throughout the state and the surrounding territory as pathfinders in the abbreviated game in this section of the country. Coach Frank Cheney's charges opened the season in winning style, defeating the Martin Junior College gridsters of Pulaski by the score of 33-25. This game was played on Sherrod Field on a warm fall afternoon, with the Eagles displaying a formidable six-man machine. Following the Martin Junior College game, the Eagles defeated the Bethel Corporals in Lambuth's big Homecoming game at Rothrock Stadium by a score of 26-22. Remember Harry Miller's dashing 70 yard jaunt that spelled the difference between victory and defeat for the Eagles? Who can forget it? Lambuth's two year unblemished record fell by the wayside when the Eagles lost to the U. T. Junior Vols at Martin on a very frigid night. The score was 44-32 in favor of Coach Paul Hug's men. The last game of the season was a return encounter with the Bethel Corporals at McKenzie. The bale of cotton, the trophy given to the winner of the Lambuth-Bethel fracas, stayed in the hands of the Eagles, for the Cheneymen came home victorious 27-20. It was a truly great season for the Eagles. Next season may hold some surprises. The Eagles are looking for greener pastures and they may find them down New Orleans way.

Coach Frank L. Cheney (left) and Assistant Coach Sloan Jobe, who worried and pondered, argued and lectured, and produced a championship team!!!

Capt. Johnston, Center

Gallagher, Quarterback

Thomas, Fullback

Captain Eugene Johnston was a fine leader for the blue and white. He was constantly in the opposing team's backfield and developed into a stellar center. Bill Gallagher played quarterback last fall and demonstrated, on several occasions, his broken-field running. C. B. Thomas, the freshman standout, was the ground-gainer for the half dozen. The "busting bronko" shattered the line and did yeoman work on backing up his own line on the defense. "Dub" Nance played end and helped to drag down those long passes. Jack Phelps, the "Greenbrier boy", played end on the second team. He demonstrated his spirit and aggressiveness against the Bethel Corporals. Letter men this year were Johnston, Gallagher, Thomas, Nance, Miller, Phelps, and Flack.

Christy Flack was the Eagles' regular left end and accounted for a number of the Lambuth touchdowns. Roger Menzies, substitute center, had a hard man to beat for a starting berth - Captain Johnston. Nevertheless, this frosh will be looked upon to carry his share of next season's lineplay. Eugene Warlick, small in size but big in heart, clicked favorably. He played a good portion of the time in the backfield. Larry Jones was undoubtedly the best passer on the team. He played halfback and shared the passing assignment with Thomas. The mightiest of the mighties, Fred Budde, diminutive scat-back, was constantly in the thick of the fray. Fred had the distinction of being the smallest man on the squad but also the fastest. Big Ellis Truett, while not tooting a sousaphone, found time to hold an end position and hold it well.

Jones, Halfback

Budde, Back

Truett, End

Truett, after making a substantial gain, is being stopped by two freshmen tacklers. These shots were taken during the freshmen-upperclassmen game.

Basketball

The 1940-1941 Season

Facing every known hardship and obstacle throughout the season, the Lambuth basketballers proved, against tremendous odds, that they had the spirit and gave the best they had for the Alma Mater. Several key players failed to answer Coach Cheney's basketball call, others quit after the season got under way, then to top it off, the squad from time to time was hampered with players being a-bed with the flu or colds. Despite the difficulties, the Eagles went to Nashville in March to the Mississippi Valley Conference tournament, won one of their games, and lost the other to David Lipscomb by a not too large score. Their important achievement was the placing of two Eagles on the All M. V. C. Team. Eddy Vetrano and W. A. Nance received these two honors.

Captain Quinton Powell was the floor general for the varsity basketeers during the season. He did a good part of the team's scoring and was a valuable man on the defense. Freshmen Roger Menzies and Robert McGowan proved their worth during the season and led Eagle basketball enthusiasts to believe they will add greatly to Lambuth's strength on the hardwood next winter. Eddy Vetrano reported to basketball practice late but quickly earned a place on the first string as guard. He was recognized as the long shot artist of the team. "Dub" Nance, the high scorer of the Eagles, performed well this past season, doing most of his scoring from his pivot position. Garnett Thomas impressed all with his ability and is expected to add some scoring punch when basketball season returns.

F. Tomlinson, Mgr.

Jimmy Tomlinson, along with Captain Powell, will be the only members of this year's squad who will be lost by graduation. Jimmy earned the title of being one of the "fastest" men on the squad! Bill Gallagher was Coach Cheney's utility man. He opened the season at quarterback, shifted to right wing, played "goalie" for a short spell and wound up at a guard slot. Manager Frank Tomlinson, known to his intimates as "Smiley", was the checker on the squad. He not only checked the uniforms but checked the players as well. Room-mates Cheney and Tomlinson proved to be the ideal combination when the Team went to Nashville.

The sophomore girls and freshmen boys won the intra-mural basketball crown intra-mural night at the Armory after a hotly contested series of games.

Tennis

The Lambuth boys' tennis team was crowned co-champions of the Mississippi Valley Conference last year with David Lipscomb of Nashville. Both teams won the same number of conference matches and their only conference losses were to each other. When the racqueteers, coached by Dr. J. C. Loftin, challenged the Lipscombites to a final meet to decide the championship, the Nashvillians refused, so the Eagles had to be contented to be co-champions. Missing from last year's co-championship squad are three good men but with freshmen Robert McGowan, Roger Menzies, and Walton Chunn showing plenty of promise, the Eagles should be as tough as they have ever been. The girls' tennis team played a couple of fall tennis matches and Doc Loftin is hoping to book enough meets for them this spring to keep his netwomen interested. The main difficulty with girls' tennis is lack of competition.

Howard Walton, Harry Miller and Jack Phelps formed the nucleus for this year's tennis team. Walton Chunn, Roger Menzies, and Robert McGowan, the frosh racquet wielders, showed excellent form in the early fall tournament and promise to add immeasurably to Doc Loftin's racqueteers. Miller has been the ace of the squad for the last two years and is expected to lead them to greater heights this spring. Walton showed fine form last season and is expected to develop into a tougher opponent this spring. Phelps, the boy with all the "English on the ball", can be counted on for his number of wins to round out the veterans who will be wearing the Blue and White on the courts this season.

The Eskimo sleeps in his white bear skin,
And sleeps very well, so I am told.
Last night I slept in my white bare skin,
And caught a heck of a cold.
